

To celebrate National Volunteers Week and to highlight the excellent work carried out by our volunteers, we're launching our Volunteer of the Year Award.

The categories are:

Property: for volunteers within our historic buildings, centres and battlefields	Garden: for volunteers within the National Trust for Scotland gardens
Outdoor Conservation: for those volunteering in our countryside properties	Support: for our volunteers behind the scenes in our offices, properties, committees and projects

The rules are simple –

- 1) You must be a registered volunteer with the National Trust for Scotland
- 2) You can only be nominated by a volunteer or member of staff of the National Trust for Scotland
- 3) Nominations must be received by 31st August 2009

The winner of each category will be selected by a committee and will be presented with their award, and prize, at an event in Charlotte Square, in late September 2009

Volunteer of the Year nomination form:

Name of the person being nominated
Their Role within the Trust
Time in this role (if known)
Property/Department/Group where they are based

Name of the person making the nomination
Role in the Trust
Property/Department/Group
Signed
Date

the National Trust for Scotland
a place for volunteering

Volunteer Award 2009 Nomination Form

Why they should receive the award:

Please send completed application forms to Violet Dalton, Head of Volunteering, Wemyss House, 28 Charlotte Square, Edinburgh. EH2 4ET. Applications to be received by 31st August 2009